Greenwade Bros. sold at Mt. Sterling Court a pair of 1,200 lb. mare mules to Mr. Estill, of Nicholas county, at $500; same party sold a pair of 1,000 lb mare mules to Clark county farmer at $450.

The movement of the Georgia peach crop to the eastern and northern markets is rapidly increasing. The total for the first week in June was 32 cars; the total for the second week was 52 cars; and last week's total was 125 cars. F. O. B. prices on the grounds average about $2.50, which is not over much in view of the shortness of the crop.

The danger of dealing in futures in which weather may play a part was exemplified in the Bluegrass seed business this season. Contracts were let in the counties of Bourbon, Clark, etc., for seed for August delivery around $1.00 per bushel. The drought cut the crop short and the seed cannot be had to make the deliveries. One buyer gave his check for $11,500, to cover losses and get released from his contract. A deal of 100,000 bushels is recently reported and the total amount is about $175,000.
